W IL and the crevity trace at Thirty Dollars the Season, Twenty Dollars the single leap, and Fifty Dollars insurance, at the plantation of Captain William B. Mays, four miles below Edgefield Court House, on the Stage road leading to Augusta. Ample preparation for care and attention to mares will be made.—
They will be pastured and fed on grain, (if required.) at twenty-five cents per day.—Accidents, escapes, sickness, &c. at the risk of the owners, although every attention will be paid to prevent them.

DESCRIPTION. NULLIFIER, is a beautiful Bay, handsomely marked with a delightful coat of hair, which shows his superior stock. His appearance is commanding-he is of the greatest power, substantiality and strength. He will be eight years old this spring-is full 16 hands high having superior size, large hones, and is as well muscelled as any other horse, in this or any country, and hos as much durability.

N. B.—Any person who will make up a company of five mares, and become responsible for the payment will have the privilege of putting them at twenty-five dolars the Season.

The Season will commence the fifteenth of February, and end on the tenth of June. Fifty cents to the groom in every instance Performance of Nullifier's Colts. NULLIFIER'S COLTS are now running as well as any colts in this country.

On the Norfolk course, Spring term 1837, Jane Rowlett by Nullifier, three years old. beat the Sweepstake race, mile heats winning the first and second heat. Time 1 min 52 sec. —1 min. 50 sec. See Turf Reg.

July, 1837 p. 476. On the Broad Rock Course (Va) Fall meeting, W. R. Johnson's b. f. by Nullifier, three years old, run a Sweepstakes, two mile heats, for which four other colts of the best stock, were entered. This race was lost by Nullifier's colt, but she was second best, and contested the race most gallantly. The last heat is pronounced 'very interesting and the best heat during the week. See

T. Reg. Nov. 1837 p 559. On the Union (L. I) course, Fall meeting Antoinette by Nullifier, won the Sweep-stakes for three year olds, two mile heats winning the two first heats. See Am T, Reg. Nov. 1837 p. 569
